

Corporate Political Accountability

1
3 WHEREAS, Corporations make significant political contributions and expenditures to 4 support and oppose political candidates, political parties and political causes; and

5
6 WHEREAS, Corporations acting through their boards and executives are obligated to 7 conduct business for the best interests of their owners, whose interests are not
8 necessarily in the public's best interest; and

9
10 WHEREAS, the public has no means of addressing the political activities of 11 corporations and the corporate boards and executives that use corporation funds to 12 support and oppose political candidates, and other actions that effect the best interests
13 of the public; and

14
15 WHEREAS, Corporations should be accountable for their public actions affecting the 16 larger community; and

17
18 WHEREAS, Political candidates, parties and causes should not accept corporate 19 contributions and expenditures as they are in the business of supporting, regulating and 20 governing the common good and the rights of the public;

21
22 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

- 23
- 24 1. The Washington State legislature shall enact laws to revoke corporate 25 personhood.
  - 26
27 2. The Washington State Legislature shall enact laws to make it unlawful for a 28 for-profit corporation to, directly or indirectly, make any political
29 contribution or expenditure for political activities or for an officer or director
30 of a corporation to consent to any political contribution or expenditure by a 31 corporation; and
  - 32
33 3. It shall be made unlawful for any candidate, political party, committee, or 34 other person knowingly to accept or receive any political contribution or 35 expenditure from a for-profit corporation or its directors.
