

Resolution Advocating the Legalization of Medical Marijuana

WHEREAS, eight states – Hawaii, Alaska, Washington, Oregon, California, Colorado, Nevada, and Maine – have enacted laws allowing doctors to prescribe marijuana for medical purposes; and

WHEREAS, since federal law prohibits the use of marijuana for any purpose, doctors prescribing marijuana for medical purposes risk being arrested; and

WHEREAS, the above eight states plus Minnesota, Mississippi, North Carolina, and New York have reduced penalties for the possession of marijuana in recent years; and

WHEREAS, in May 2004, House Republicans attempted to pass legislation that would strip federal anti-drug money from local police in states which have passed medical marijuana laws; and

WHEREAS, in May 2004, House Republicans asked for legislation to fund the White House Drug Policy office for five more years and allow that office to run ads opposing medical marijuana initiatives;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Washington State Democratic Party shall press its U.S. Senators and Representatives to press for legislation which would protect the medical marijuana laws in the states which have passed them, and which would prohibit the reduction of federal funds to states which have passed medical marijuana laws.
