

Resolution to Support Fair Nominations

1
2
3 WHEREAS the right to vote is a fundamental right enshrined in the U.S. Constitution;

4
5 WHEREAS the recognition of integrity of the people's right to a fair and impartial nomination
6 process is an essential bulwark against tyranny as old as the Greek democracy and Roman
7 republic;

8
9 WHEREAS the public expects those holding nomination processes to conduct them impartially
10 and evenhandedly and that the failure to do so breeds contempt and cynicism in the electorate
11 and the party;

12
13 WHEREAS the Democratic National Committee (herein after the DNC) has, by virtue of its
14 Charter and Bylaws, expressed its commitment to impartiality and fairness in the nomination
15 process;

16
17 WHEREAS Debbie Wasserman Schultz and the DNC allegedly failed to conduct the 2016
18 primary in an evenhanded and impartial manner in violation of the DNC Bylaws and Article 5,
19 Section 4 of the DNC Charter and were sued in a class action suit alleging numerous instances
20 wherein they failed to conduct the democratic primary in an evenhanded and impartial manner.

21
22 WHEREAS in defense of said suit the DNC denied that it has an obligation to conduct the 23 primary process in an evenhanded and impartial manner. The DNC called its own Bylaws and 24 Charter unenforceable political promises;

25
26 WHEREAS the DNC has set a dubious precedent by calling its own Charter and Bylaws
27 discretionary; and

28
29 WHEREAS the DNC's continued refusal to acknowledge its obligation to provide an impartial
30 and even handed primary deepens the disaffection of certain elements within the Democratic
31 Party;

32
33 THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED the Washington State Democrats urge the DNC to reaffirm its 34 obligation to all party members to conduct an evenhanded and impartial nomination process as 35 determined by its Charter, Bylaws and applicable rules; and

36
37 THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Washington State Democrats request a
38 status report from the DNC.
